

Holy Cross Lutheran Cemetery Emma, Missouri

Photographed and Documented by Jane Bredehoeft Schroer

This book details 146 years of history as taken from the funeral records of the church. The book is 434 pages. The book shows photos and a genealogical history with each listing. Also listed are those where there are no stones and a history with each burial.

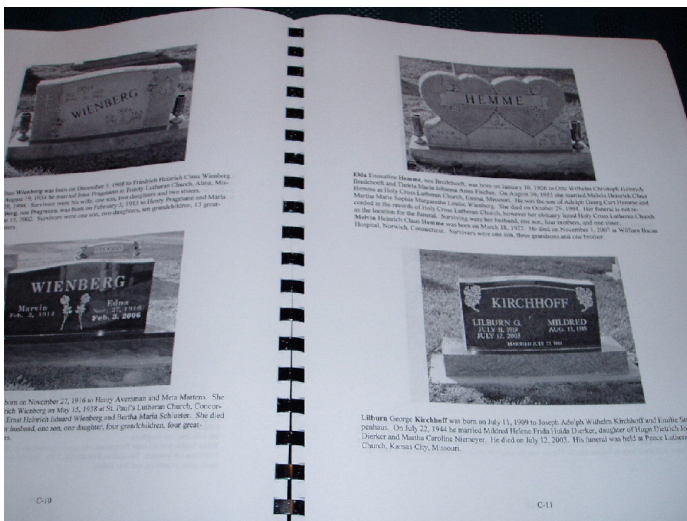

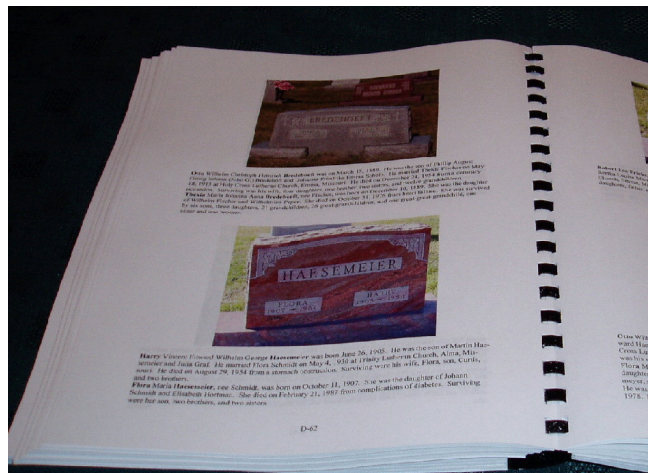

The church records, written in German until the 1920's, include the cause of death. This provides a glimpse into the lives and hardships of the times for these German settlers of eastern Lafayette County and western Saline County in Missouri.

The book layout is designed to assist individuals to locate a specific burial. The book includes a listing of all funerals from 1864 until 2007, and is fully indexed.
